Hunk's latest coverstar Spencer De Gabrio is a real life farmer in North Minnesota where he lives with his girlfriend and their six dogs.

Discovered by his local television channel whilst appearing in a documentary about farmer's rights, Spencer soon became a local celebrity when he was asked to host a farming programme on cable TV. This led to a string of modelling assignments and TV commercials. One especially caused quite a stir when he was asked to strip down to his skimpies to advertise a local brand of ice cream. Now a year later, here he is.

Being rather proud of his beefy body and natural good looks, Spencer is not oblivious to the fact that he is attractive to gay men but is somewhat bemused by all the attention.

"I have quite a few gay friends now I've been on TV" he says "It's obviously one of those professions that attracts gay people and they are always trying to get me to go out with them to bars and stuff. They reckon I'll go down a storm. Janice, my girlfriend thinks it's all really funny and to be honest I think it kinda turns her on."

When we asked him if he would ever consider having sex with a man there was a very lengthy pause before he answered "Gee I'm not really sure. I don't really find guys attractive in that way although I know when a guy is good looking or not. I do appreciate a good body though. I spend a lot of time down at the gym and I do admire guys with great physiques, so take that how you want."

Whichever way you want to take it, Spencer admits he has no problem with gay sexuality or the idea of two men fucking each other. "Let's face it" he says "dogs do it birds do it so why not men?"

Stranger in the night

by jim hardacre

It's not often that I pass someone in the street who's as much of a man as I am — and who returns my gaze, letting me know that he's as gay as I am too. When it happens, something usually cums of it.

I was walking home late at night from work, dirty and tired from the building site — and then a few pints with the lads. On the deserted main road, a bloke was coming towards me, his boots clomping on the pavement, echoing in the quiet. He was about my height — six foot or so — dark and well-built. As we got closer, I noticed his firm, square jaw and the sheer size of the guy. I kept looking at him as we passed. He looked back. My cock stirred. That was enough for me. I told myself that I didn't have the energy for picking anyone up tonight.

But as I continued on my way home, there was a second set of footsteps behind me, maybe 100 metres back. I played a game with myself (or maybe with him). I decided not to look back. If it was the guy I'd just cruised, then let him follow me home. If not, then I could wank over what might have happened. And if it was a mugger, I would throw him over my shoulder soon as he touched me.

It was another ten minutes to my flat. The darkness was filled with the sound of those footsteps, a rhythmic thud that made me hard and horny in my work-pants.

I turned into the alley that cuts through to my street. As I reached the far end of it, I couldn't hear anyone following. But as I turned into my street, I thought I could faintly hear those boots hitting the concrete, some distance back.

I let myself into the house and left the front door ajar. Then up the stairs. My brother and I share a council house, but there was no sign of him that night. I turned on the bedroom light as a beacon to my stranger; then stripped off my dirty clothes and lay down on the bed, stopping only to get out condoms and lube and place them on the shelf. Now I could hear footsteps outside. They paused outside the house. The door creaked as it swung open, then it was shut firmly and everything went quiet for maybe two minutes. I breathed deeply, uncertain of what would happen next. Then the footsteps made their way more quietly up the stairs. The bedroom door was pushed back. There in the doorway was the hunk from the street. Naked.

He had fantastic definition: enormous pecs, an impressive criss-cross of abdominals. His long cock was still soft, hanging between his firm thighs. And his arms hung loosely by his side as he looked down at me. I didn't move. I don't know how much time passed, just that the tension and excitement was all the greater for the stillness and the silence. Finally he spoke. "Shouldn't leave the front door open round here," he said. "Anyone might come in." His voice was deep with a strong northern accent, and he was looking hard at me as I lay there with a throbbing hard-on.

He walked towards me, stopping to take my heavy handcuffs from the hook on the wall. "Ever had these used on you?" he asked. "No." I didn't need to say anything else. He could see I was both scared and excited to think that I wouldn't be the top, this time — but also ashamed to think of myself chained up by another man, like his slave.

He bent over me and took my face in his strong hands. He kissed my hair, roughing it up, then put a hand behind my head to pull my mouth to his. His firm lips pressed against mine, the bristles on his face scratched me as he pushed his tongue into my mouth and we kissed deep and long.

I was breathing deeply and the blood was pumping through me as I wrapped my arms around him and stroked his back. I held on to him as he kissed my neck roughly, then licked and kissed his way across my grimy chest, pulling on my chest hair with his teeth, biting at my nipples. I groaned and he took my right nipple between his teeth and chewed on it. I wrapped my legs around his back and pressed my groin against his body. "What are you going to do to me?"

"Chain you up and fuck you stupid," he replied.

I tried to fight him off as he grabbed my wrists to fit the manacles around them. I'm strong, from years of manual work, but he looked like he'd been working out all his life. As we wrestled on the bed, he overpowered me again and again. Each time, he took the opportunity to bite or kiss me or grab at my arse. His cock hardened... it was huge and proud as it stood against his muscled stomach. I managed to grab it just when he was trying to catch hold of me, and for one short moment I stroked my hand over his manhood.

"No you don't!" he shouted, finally succeeding in forcing the handcuffs around my wrists. He hauled me from the bed and chained me on all fours to hooks low down the wall — just as I've done again and again in the past, to the young guys I've brought home. That time when he knelt behind me was one of the most exciting experiences of my life. At the same time, I felt sick at myself for letting someone make me powerless like this. All I could see was the wall. But I could feel his breath on my arse as he looked at me, could feel his cock press lightly against my arse-cheeks. He ran a hand over my arse, then prised the cheeks apart and explored with a finger, just lightly touching my hole and stroking all around it. Then I felt the wetness and warmth of his tongue, licking and pushing at my tight arsehole.

I knew there was dirt all over my body from the dust and muck on the building-site, but he hadn't said anything. Till now. As he licked my hole, he was running his hands over my chest, through the dark hair which was matted with dirt and sweat. "You're a filthy bastard, aren't you?" "Yeah," I panted.

"All you're good for is fucking," he said. His voice was a cross between a growl and a spit. I heard him rolling on a condom on to his fat hard cock. "I'm spreading lube all over my cock now," he told me. I realised he was going to tell me everything he was doing, and I felt myself nearly cumming. I had to stop myself somehow. "I nearly came," I said, hoping he would humiliate me. I can't stand to think of someone dominating me, so if he told me off, then it would be a turn-off for me. "You what?" he replied. "You bastard. You better not cum till I'm done with you, understand?" "Yes," I gasped. It hadn't worked. I just felt more horny. He was going to fuck me and I had to give in. I had to...

Suddenly I came. It jetted into my face and against the wall. I jerked and jerked about, chained to the wall but collapsing against the floor, helpless.

He was furious. He tried to shout at me but all that came out was an incoherent yell, then his cock was pressing hard against my hole and pushing right in me.

I shouted at him, "Stop, you fucker!" But he was pushing into me now and my hole just spread around his cock.

"I'm fucking you now," he grunted. I shouted out in pain as he forced his massive organ into me. There was nothing I could do. I had let him chain me up, I had given up my manhood to him and he thrust in there as if he owned me, tunnelling into my guts as I rocked under him. He had an arm around me, and he thrust deeper and deeper into the untouched depths of my fuckhole as he took what he wanted, grunting and pounding away. I was crying out, so full of him that I couldn't think or feel, as if I was just an extension of his cock as it took over both our bodies with its need. My balls were already straining again, my dick was desperate for relief as if I hadn't just cum minutes ago and my sex-juice wasn't even now trickling down the wall in front of my face.

"I'm going to cum in you, you fuckhole," he groaned, his face next to mine, grazing my cheek for a second before he was kneeling up again as he pulled out slightly, then pushing and depths till we were both screaming out as a single climax came from deep within him, bursting out of his cock into me. As he came, I came, shouting and buckling under him, my cum in my face again, his face all over my back and my neck as he shouted and bit into my flesh. I fell to the floor again, but he lay flat out on top of me. My arms were stretched up to the hooks where my wrists were still shackled. The tension of him lying on top of me was pulling almost too hard on my arms, but I loved him lying there, pinning me to the ground in the aftermath of his deep, hard fuck. Eventually he pulled ever so slow out of me. With each movement I gasped and twisted, trying to hold him in. But he pulled his cock out past my hole as I cried out with the final stretch and release of my sphincter. As he rolled off the rubber and stroked his drooping dick I begged to take it in my mouth. "Let me suck you, please."

"Not yet." He kissed me and then he released me. As each handcuff came off, it was a relief. But it was also a sort of disappointment, the end to that special time when I was his prisoner. Now he gathered me up and actually carried me to the bed, where he dropped me down and wrapped me in the duvet. Then he went downstairs and I heard him open the fridge.

"he pulled his cock out past my hole as I cried out with the final stretch and release of my sphincter..."

He came back up with two beers. I grinned. Then I realised it was the first time either of us had smiled, the whole experience had been so serious.

He sat down on the bed. "Cheers!" We clinked our beer-cans together.

We hardly spoke as we drank. I felt full and sapped at the same time. I looked at this hunk who had taken me and fucked me. For a second I felt humiliated as I thought of how I had let him chain me up and screw me like that. But then I looked at the way he was watching me. It wasn't like he was better than me, just that he'd needed something from me and now he had it. When he put down his beer, I pulled him down on the bed with me and kissed him.

It's hard to write about what happened after that. Because I fell asleep, thinking I would just doze in his arms for a few minutes. And when I woke, he'd gone. No clues, no phone number, no note. Just left me, before I even sucked on that tasty cock, before I even held it properly in my hand.

He's still my fantasy — or one of them. I still take home the younger guys who know how to give it up. But often, when I wank, I think of the stranger whose name I never knew, who chained me up and fucked me, who held me to him... and then walked out the way he'd walked in. He knows where I live. Perhaps one day he'll be back.

Lovely Lucas hails from Paris, France and has been living in England now for 4 years. He trained as an illustrator and was unfortunately sent on a work placement to dreary Scunthorpe before moving down to London to work for a publishing company, where he now designs and illustrates book covers.

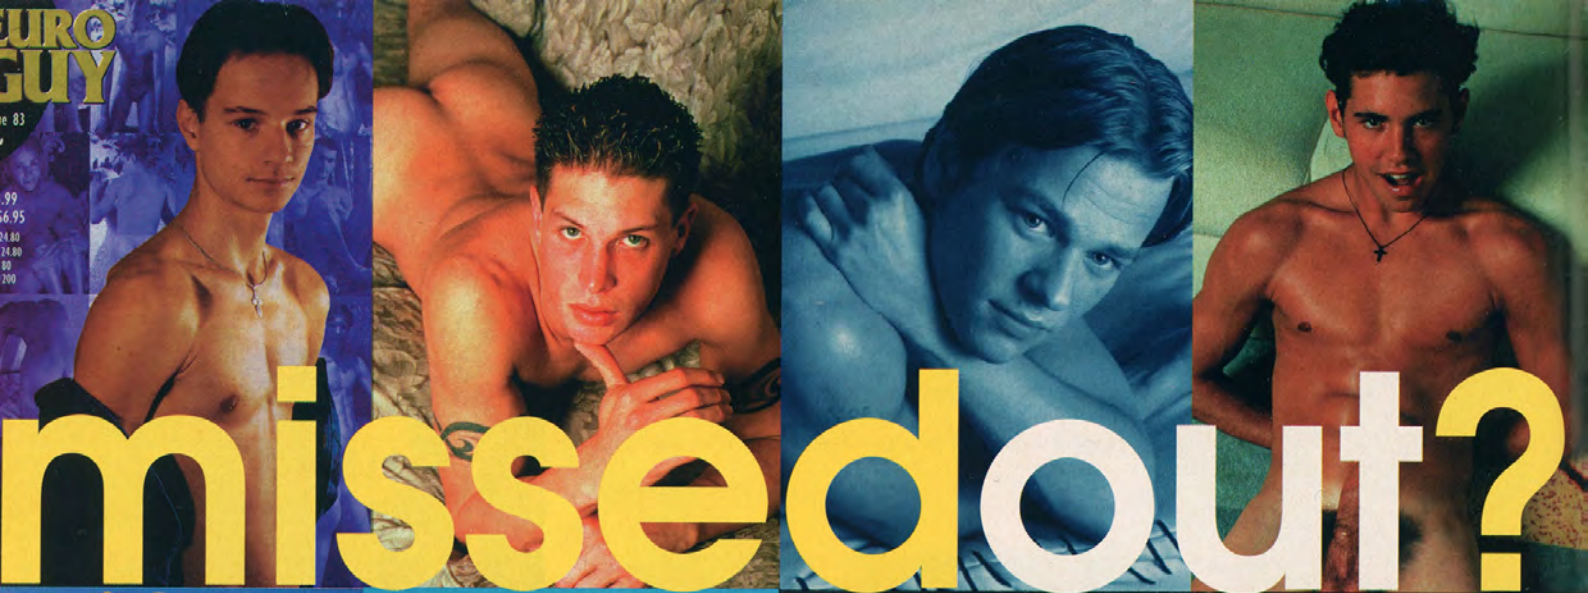

He currently lives with his actor boyfriend in south London and says he cannot get enough sex to fulfill his extra large appetite. Quite often the two of them have to arrange secret rendezvous in their London flat at lunchtimes just to work off some sweat.

Lucas confesses he loves sex on poppers but the down side is the nasty burns and chafing skin it sometimes causes around his extra sensitive nose.

Is it true that French men make the best lovers?

"I think so, yes... You English are all so hung up about your sexuality. Sometimes it's like getting into bed with a wooden board. There is no real passion in you people. We French, on the other hand are not shy about sex. We are real maniacs. I'm known by my friends as easy, sleazy and hot and to be honest, I like it."

What do you look for in a man?

"I like a nice big dick first and foremost and plenty of stamina. Any guy I go out with must be able to shag me senseless."

Backed up against a wall

What is your motto in life?

"never trust a man whose eyebrows meet in the middle or whose cock is less than 8 inches"

What do you like most about sex?

"Lying on a bed with my butt in the air and my boyfriend going at it ten to the dozen from behind. I can't really be bothered with the foreplay thing as I just like to get straight into it."

Sultry Joe Kent works 9 - 5 as a Bank Manager for one of America's top banks but once out of the office, this seriously hunky male is quite a different person.

Cruising around the local bars, Joe admits that nothing turns him on more than bedding a different man every night.

This sexually active gregarious male is quick to point out though that he always practises safe sex and never fucks without a condom but as soon as a guy starts getting just that little bit too familiar, he's out the door, preferring to find himself a fresh arsehole for the night.

Siting "Making Love" as his favourite film (the one where 'Charlie's Angel' Kate Jackson's husband starts messing around with 'LA Laws' hunky Harry Hamlin before realising he's a complete bastard), Joe reckons he models his life on Harry Hamlin's character. "I know just how that guy feels and the thing is he's made out to be the bad guy, but as soon as some guy starts callin' me darlin' my dick just flops.

Joe has another reason for liking the film and that comes in the shape of Harry Hamlin. "That guy is so hot! I'd sure like to bag him. Unfortunately he's straight or so I'm told."

Joe says "I love having sex when I'm slightly drunk because for some reason it makes me really horny and very uninhibited. It also makes me very dominant. I love a bit of slap around. A bit of force to the sex I have with a guy. I guess it's a kind of rape fantasy."

What do you look for in a man?

"I have no specific physical taste in a man. I can shag anything that moves especially when I'm really horny. I like guys who are uninhibited though. There's certain stuff I won't do but I'm very open minded when it comes to sex."

How do you like your sex then?

"I like to dominate a guy as I've already said. I like a bit of bondage and stuff like dildos. I have a kind of playroom in my flat where I keep all my stuff. Of course you can't always guarantee that a guy will be into the same stuff exactly so you have to take it slow."

What was your most memorable sexual experience?

"I picked up this guy in La Cruz, this bar near my home. It's kind of a leather club so I knew he'd be into my kind of thing. Anyway once we got into the swing of things I had him tied up and in this sling I have and well he was completely at my mercy. I had him every which way I wanted... fucked, fisted and dildoad."

What is your motto in life?

"Penetrate the impenetrable!"

Would you say you have sex on the brain?

"Yeah I guess sex does play a very big part in my life. I have to fuck at least once a day. On the rare occasions I don't pick up some guy, and believe me it's very rare, I wank furiously six or seven times."

HOW TO GET

On the left hand side of the page you'll see a directory list of each guy appearing in the magazine. These lads are just aching to hear from you. Most magazines only let you look at the guys, but now you can speak to them, and yes, they will speak to you. Now obviously these guys cannot be sitting by the phone all the time, so we have given each of them a direct telephone number that you will see next to their picture. So, when you phone them you will either get them, or their personal answering service, where you can leave them a direct message.

This can be anything you want, as long as it's legal. Every couple of days the guys will check their message boxes to see who's called, and if you've left your personal PIN number, then they will reply to you in a very personal and private way. Imagine, you can have an ongoing exchange of messages with as many guys as you like - all you have to do is call.

First, Register

Phone the number below 0990 134 170 and you will be given your own private PIN number. This is unique and private to you. Write this down in the box below and then it will be yours to use whenever you want to contact the guys directly and personally.

Then Get In Touch

Look at the directory of the in-touch lads, decide which one you want to talk to and what you want to tell him, and remember, our guys are not shy, so no need to hold back. Dial his number and he will answer. If you leave him a message you must leave her your PIN number that you have been allocated so that he can get back to you directly on the private access line.

Tomorrow.....

Call the private access line 0990 134 115. Enter your PIN number and collect your personal reply.

And Finally.....

From then on your PIN number rests with you and there's no need to re-register. Just month by month choose the guy and call him whenever you like. Have fun.....

what's hot and what's not on the net by Bambi Giles

Who wants to see Peter Andre with his kit off? Well, almost. This site contains an extensive collection of 'topless' pictures of celebrities. Stars of TV, film and music are all to be found on this moderated site. The picture quality is good and the pages load reasonably fast, but some of the pictures are links to other web pages so may not be available in the future. If you've ever wanted to see 'more' of Superman, or hunk Jean-Claude Van Damme's impressive pecs then check this site out. If you get bored, then there are plenty of links to other, similarly themed sites so you can while away many a happy hour drooling over your favourite stars.

Cock, cock, cock and more cock! You wanted it, so here it is. It doesn't matter how gorgeous the model you are looking at is, if you can't see his dick then you can't imagine shagging him (call me old fashioned). Apparently "Celebrating the death of the First Amendment and of the death of the Communications Decency Act" this site features lots and lots of pictures of guys with the pants off - which at the end of the day is what we all want. The fact that the guys are all built like brick shit houses and hung like donkeys is a bonus! This is a HOT site, but be quick - with the way things are on The Internet it probably won't be there tomorrow.

hot new video releases

Prowler Men

The latest offering from the Prowler stable is this compilation of some of Prowler's hunkiest, beefiest and definitely best looking guys from over the years (hence the title "MEN"). All the guys featured on this hour long tape are well sexy and you really do get the feeling that they are getting off on one another.

Particular favourites with this reviewer have to be the two cover guys who are real men of the straight looking variety (every gay man's fantasy) and as well as being extremely handsome they have perfect bodies to boot.

There's also a particularly hunky session from the early HUNK video Mechanics. If only every mechanic looked like these guys we'd all be taking our motor's in for a quick servicing. In short then, even though this is a rerun of old stuff don't be put off. There's something for everyone here and there is a certain freshness to the material. If you like your men to look like MEN... this is the video for you.

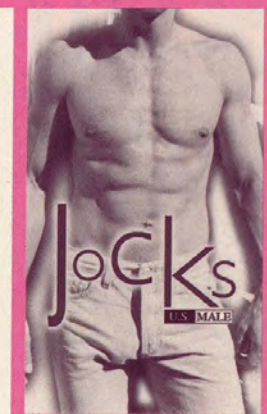

Rating: A nice sexy blend of real men. Some compilations tend to look like tired old seen before tat but this isn't the case with this release. All the men are really sexy and there are a couple of genuinely sexy moments where temperatures are raised to well above boiling point

Another video from the US Male label sees never seen before footage from two of their earlier releases: Naked Images and Kalahari (one of my personal favourites from the label) plus a series of very strange naked interludes interspersed between.

A couple of the scenarios are quite sexy little fantasies particularly the one set in a downtown strip joint where a guy poses and gyrates in a cage for all to see... and feel! The naked interludes on the other hand are a little too weird for this reviewer's tastes and serve only to disjoint the proceedings. However if you are simply a lover of the male form then sit back and enjoy.

Rating: Fair. If voyeurisms your thing then this could well be the video for you. However if you find you cant get off on that kind of thing perhaps you should leave it for those who can. Mildly diverting ...

What is the best aspect of your job?

"Definitely seeing all those hot tourists strutting around in their tight shorts and skimpy t-shirts. Guys come from all over the world to my theme park and my favourites are the Europeans. I also especially like Scandinavians and Norwegians. They always have nice round arses. When the buses arrive the gay guys I work with all select the guys they fancy to be part of their troop and let's just say it ain't long before we bag 'em."

Most memorable sexual experience?

"It has to be one I had recently with some tourist I picked up in the park where I work. I can't be too specific with the details but one of the rides has a secret door so engineers can get in to service the machinery easily. Anyway, I saw this guy cruising me and so I let him follow me round to the rear of the ride.

He was an English guy which is strange because they are usually so uptight but anyway he followed me right in. The ride was closed down so I knew we wouldn't be disturbed and we fucked right there in one of the carriages.

my fantasy is to have sex in mid

What made it quite unusual is that he fucked me first and I'm usually the active one. Anyway we went at it for an hour or so him, fucking me and me fucking him and we ended up with cum all over the seats. The worst thing was there wasn't anything to clean up the mess.

My real sexual fantasy though is to have sex on one of the rides in mid air. That must be really fantastic"

Who would you most like to have sex with?

"When I was over in England recently on holiday I happened to see some programme on TV one night. It was your equivalent to ER. I think it was called Casualty or something. Anyroad there was this real cute young guy in it with blond hair who was playing a gay doctor or something. Man was he hot. I dont know his name but I sure would love to get him between the sheets."

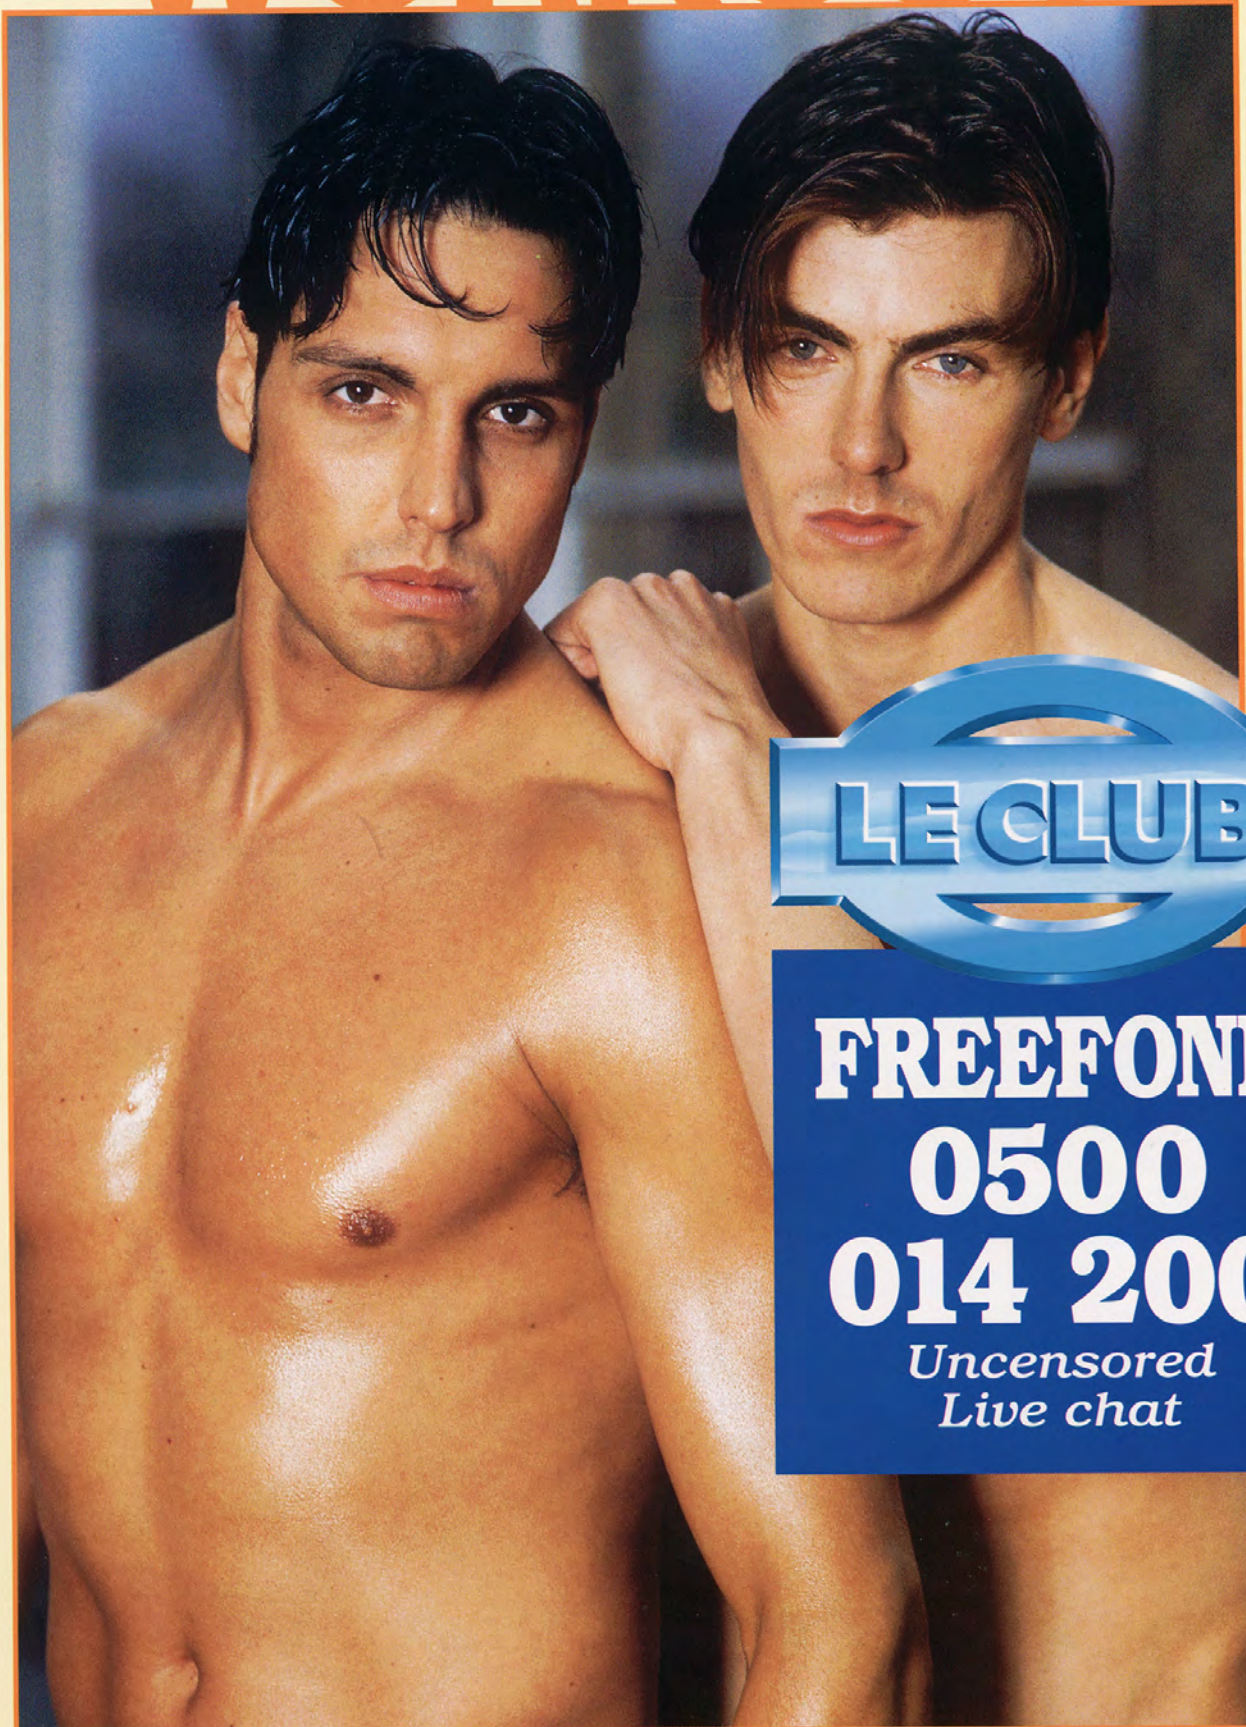

unclesam wants YOU

Troy says "My body is quite naturally well built and defined. I don't get much chance to work out with the job I do so it's just as well. Infact my top ten tips on how to keep your favourite muscles in shape would be to get plenty of hot sex. I guranatee a visit to the theme park where I work will put a smile on your face."
